

Yellow Springs Arts Council 2013—Board of Trustees

Jerome Borchers, President—Special Program Administrator, WSU Boonshoft SOM

Jerome's Yellow Springs community affiliations include: past treasurer of the YSHS Theatre Arts Association, past board president of the Mills Lawn After School Program, and past chair of the YS Center for the Arts Steering Committee. Jerome has a background in theatre and visual art and contributes experience in community arts initiatives and advocacy to the YSAC.

Jackie Anderson—Career Counselor, Ponitz Pipeline Program, Kettering College

Jackie has a background in theatre, education and professional speaking. In 2013 she completed a research study about the Yellow Springs arts community. Jackie is a marketing specialist with broad experience in client development, brand management, and product placement, especially in the education sector. Her graduate studies focused on business and government management, strategic planning, organizational change management, program and performance analysis and evaluation, budget planning and implementation, and human resource management.

Nick Gaskins, Vice President—Executive Director, Bing Design

Nick Gaskins has been in the advertising and graphic design business for nearly 30 years. He began work in Yellow Springs in 1995 as a senior designer for Bing Design, then purchased the business in 2000. Previously, Nick worked as an art director for two of the largest ad agencies in the Columbus market. With a Bachelor of Science in Journalism from Ohio University, Nick specializes in developing graphic presentations that balance and support client messages effectively. Nick brings arts business and management expertise, as well as design & marketing support to the YSAC.

Linda Parsons—Appraiser & Art Dealer, Linda L. Parsons Art Sales

Linda owns and manages an art appraisal service near Yellow Springs. She began appraising and dealing art in Denver, Colorado, with offices at the historic Zang Mansion. She later opened a business in Santa Fe, New Mexico and was a silent partner in the now defunct "Denver Rio Grande" gallery in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Her current business maintains connections in Denver, Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico. Linda has served as board member and president of the "American Art Society" in Cincinnati, whose mission involves research and preservation of American painters and sculptors. She brings arts gallery management and business skills to YSAC.
