20 Opening Reception and Auction, sponsored by the Glen Helen Raptor Center

6 – 9 pm

A portion of the sales will go to the Raptor Center. This show includes an auction of birds made by local artists. All of the proceeds from the auction will go to The Raptor Center.

20 – 30* At the Gallery: "Gone To The Birds: Featuring Glen Helen Raptor Center Birds" work by photographer Talitha Greene and the Textile Graffiti "Put a Bird On It" Crew

"For The Birds" features Talitha Greene's award winning photographs taken over a decade of documenting individual Raptor Center Birds. By capturing each bird's personality in a crystal-clear winsome portrait, Talitha captivates us as well. As you come face to face with each of her bird portraits, you begin to feel like you know each bird as a friend. Included in the Gallery Exhibit will be an unusual Bird Aviary. This one won't contain live birds, but it will be full of zany, sweet, beautifully crafted 3/D Art Birds, made by many local artists. Guests to the show can also craft their own bird. Art supplies will be offered for the public to create birds to take home or display on a whimsical wall design Bird Cage in the Gallery's multi purpose room.

25 Art Foundations Workshop

1 – 4 pm

An educational workshop on the basic principles of Art presented local folk artist Anna Burke. Teaching, application, and fun activities will send your child home with new knowledge and their own work of art! This workshop will cover ABSTRACT ART and is intended for children 8 - 12 years old. The $10 fee covers snacks and supplies and can be paid at the door.

27 Artist Open Critique Session

2 – 4 pm

Visual Artists are invited to bring 1-2 finished or unfinished pieces of their art for a group critiquing session. Artists in attendance will provide constructive feedback.
