- 4 After School Enrichment Begins – 1st and 2nd Graders $95.00 per student
2:45 – 4:15 PM
Children will be picked up at Mills Lawn School and walked to the Gallery. In this series the students will work with various media, and some of the art we will make includes: paper mache masks, wire sculptures, embroidered pet pillows, self portraits, and drawings from observation. Classes continue every Wednesday through March 25.
- 4 Artist's Journal Workshops $25.00 per student
6:00 – 8:00 PM plus supplies
Explore various techniques for creating your own unique artist's journal. Attend a 6 week workshop designed to focus on creating fun and inspiring journal pages! Those who wish to participate should be able to commit to one workshop time per week (Wednesday or Saturday) as well as to time spent outside of the workshop on their journals. At the end of the workshop, for the participants who want to, we will celebrate our work with a reception for the community.

7 Songwriters Concert Series $4.00 suggested donation
 6:30 – 9:00 pm
 Music starts at 7 pm. Artists TBA

20 Opening Reception and Annual Membership Meeting
 6 – 9 pm
 Join us to celebrate our member artists, enjoy wine and good food and vote for both the People’s Choice Award and on the new nominees for the YSAC Board of Trustees.

20 – 28* At the Gallery: Members' Show "Family and Other Animals"
 Man has made images of mankind and animals from the beginning of time. Why? Artists are invited to immortalize, satirize, blend, create a new species, or a new family, capture a likeness, expose a soul or maybe explore how far they can push their imagination with wild fantasy creatures. Work will be in many mediums. The pictured critter was created by Beth Holyoke for last year’s Members show.

 6:30 - 9:30 pm
 Live performance by Ri Molnár

Ri Molnár is an artist by heart, a feminist by nature, and a queer completely. Take a moment to laugh at yourself and the holes in your humanity through the lens of Ri's brain. "Will the Real Terrorist Please Stand Up?", an exploration of the hypocrisy of vilification in our nation, will premiere at Arts Alive!

15 Art Sampler: Calligraphy $20.00
 2:00 – 5:00 pm
 “Down and Dirty: An intensive introduction to Calligraphy - Legibility in 180 Minutes” by Ann Bain. These art classes for adults will be held on the third Sunday of the month and class size will be small — 5 to 15 people — to ensure personal attention for each student. Materials will typically be included in the class fee; check each class description for details. Pre-registration is encouraged, as the classes will be canceled if there aren’t enough students.

19 – 30* At the Gallery: "The Sunflower Show", a group show presented by Tecumseh Land Trust

The Dayton Visual Arts Center (DVAC) encourages painting in nature through 'Paint Outs' at various sites in the Miami Valley. In September of 2014, DVAC collaborated with Tecumseh Land Trust and with Dave and Sharen Neuhardt, owners of Whitehall Farm, to invite both kids and adults to paint for a day in the Neuhardt's 10 acre sunflower field. Both experienced and novice artists gathered, painted, drew, and discussed their art with each other and with Wright State Emeritus Professor David Leach. The art produced on and around this day forms our body of work. Some artists will offer their work for sale.
