

Your membership in the Yellow Springs Arts Council supports a creative quality of life for everyone who lives in and visits the village of Yellow Springs. This community has been built on Art since its earliest days. The YSAC enhances that through monthly gallery shows, art classes and performances as well as the yearly Art House Hop, Holiday Art Jumble, and It's extraordinary the way the Arts Council welcomes artists at all levels and gives them an opportunity to exhibit their work."

— Kit Crawford

Yellow Springs Open Studios, in addition to special projects such as the National Bronze Sculpture Trail and Fence Art Gallery Project.

"The Arts Council really does their job well, they find new blood coming in, reach out to them and try to get them involved."

— Scott Stoltsenberg

70

bands, storytellers, dancers, poets, vocalists and live painters performed during gallery openings and Arts Alive!

7

Yellow Springs art collectors opened their homes for this year's Art House-Hop.

102

visual artists presented their work in our Community Gallery.

The Permanent Collection has grown to include 181 works
by 110 artists

25

classes were taught to 175 budding artists

from 7 years old to adults covering subjects such as print making, beveled glass, Henna, art journals, watercolors and calligraphy.

More than 2,300

people attended the Art House-Hop, the Holiday Art Jumble, Gallery Shows and Arts Alive! performances and other events at the Community Gallery.

All this was accomplished by

3 part-time staff and over 120 volunteers

who donated more than 4,300 hours. Your membership will help us continue to share art, teach budding artists, entertain audiences and document the artistic history of Yellow Springs.

We spend about

$2,500

to cover basic costs each month, which is provided entirely by grants and contributions from YSAC members.

Please support this valuable organization with your time, talent, or treasure!
