"Pareidolia" Seeing Faces in Unusual Places- The YSAC Members Show

The Members show is always a delight with many different styles and mediums. Come and see what our artists have been creating.

Reception February 21st 6-9 pm. How many faces in the art can you find? Good food, and drinks, Art, Live Music, friends and fun, what could be better?

Music performed by Mitch Coleman

March 20th -April 12th

"Journeys"

Photography by Aaron Zaremsky

Reception March 20th 6-9 pm

"We all take journeys, short and long. Some that change our lives.

These images, collected many years ago from my travels in Italy, Morocco, and Spain, showcase a lengthy journey into previously unknown lands. These people and places shaped who I am today."

April 17th -May 10th

"Three Glass Addicts"

Art by Sara Gray, Theresa Mayer and Barbara Vandecreek

Reception April 17th 6-9 pm

"Take three ladies who enjoy creating- Add glass to the mixture- What do you get?

Three glass addicts who cannot stop playing with glass. Glass is an amazing substance! It can take on many forms. We use it in sheets, rods, frit, and powders. Heat is added to take the glass from a solid to a molten stage where a design is created, then the glass is cooled and the piece returns to a solid. Sometimes our creations are good, sometimes not what we expected, sometimes pretty, sometimes wacky, yet we always have fun with the process!"

"Glass is our favorite medium, but each of us has also developed skills in other artistic areas such as painting, drawing, photography, sewing, bead weaving, and woodturning."

May 1st and 2nd, 1-4

“How to Photograph your Work”

Instructor: Angela Smith, M.F.A Ohio University

August 15, 2020 1 PM. – 4 PM.

"You have created your best artistic pieces and now what do you do? Whether you want to apply for shows, post to your website, or share with friends, a great photograph is what you do next! This workshop will focus on lighting and photographic techniques that range from DIY to amateur levels. Your art may range from sculptures, to paintings, to photographs, and to whatever the material is that inspires your creativity. We will discuss how we can photograph it all! So bring whatever camera you may have, even if it’s just your phone, and learn photographic techniques that can work for you."

August 21st -Sept. 13th

"Landscapes in Watercolor of Yellow Springs". Watercolors by Western Ohio Watercolor Society

Opening Reception: Friday, August 21st 6-9 pm

Western Ohio Watercolor Society is very excited to present Yellow Springs a show representing city landscapes and landscapes of the surrounding city. Watercolor is such a special and unique way to showcase. Our members are represented in watercolor magazines and in 2019 WOWS had more members in the state show than any other watercolor organization. We look forward to painting your beautiful town!

September 12th 2-4 Free Artist and Community Workshop

Workshop: “How to Create an Artist Statement and Art Application Practice”

Instructor: Angela Smith, M.F.A Ohio University

September 12, 2020 2 PM. – 4 PM.

"Sometimes the hardest process of the art making practice is when you finally need to put into words your own personal vision. No matter how you share your work a concise artist statement can help others understand your passion. This workshop will focus on how to apply for various art events and opportunities, while also honing your statement so that it can push your artistic practice forward. Feel free to bring any draft of a previous statement you have written and if this is all new to you we will be discussing writing techniques to help get you started. "

September 18th -Oct. 11th - The Emerging Artist Showcase

Reception Sept. 18th 6-9 pm

Sept. 26th 3-4 Free Event

“Social Media For Artists” An Artist's Talk presented by Linda Holloway.

Linda Holloway, owner of Linnylou’s Cookies (a cottage food bakery located in Jamestown Ohio) quit her successful corporate career to make custom decorated sugar cookies for a living. Learn about her journey with social media as her sole source of advertising and how she’s grown a respectable following without sacrificing her sense of self for the sake of self-promotion. She will share how she (reluctantly) engaged in social media - the logistics that have worked for her, but also how she has maintained her authenticity as a person and artist.

October 16th -November 15th

SharonSSongS

Art by Sharon M Mohler.

Reception October 16th 6-9 pm

Sharon Mohler's tiny, sculpted scenes of life, brimming with humorous, some times outrageous, and often loving moments, are a delight. She calls them “The Ballads of 81 years.”

“My pieces tell the same stories that sung ballads would if I were a better musician.”
The pieces were created over the last 40 years. Every piece tells a story some tell many stories .”There are four ingredients in my work ,Polymer clay ,wire , acrylic artists paint, and my imagination.”
